SENIOR BUSINESS PSYCHOLOGIST

SR&A Ltd is an expanding group of Business Psychologists working on significant consulting projects with a range of premier public and private sector organisations. Our focus is on the assessment and development of people. An opportunity has arisen for a Senior Consultant to join our business and take a leading position in the acquisition, design and delivery of consultancy assignments. The successful candidate will be Chartered or eligible for Chartership, with a minimum of 5 years' business psychology experience post MSc, preferably gained in a commercial environment. Based in Manchester you will be working on assignments throughout the UK.

You will have a track record in leading assignments, meeting client briefs, and developing business opportunities. You will be experienced in designing and facilitating assessment and development centres, exercise design, and in working with clients on selection, development and promotion processes. You will be Level A and B qualified, and able to use a range of psychometric tools in feedback. Experience in management development and coaching would be an advantage as well as an interest in contributing to our well-established training programmes. A significant part of the role will involve the identification, development and acquisition of new business.

If you are interested in the opportunity to establish yourself within our core professional team, please write with a current CV, including salary details to: Stuart Robertson, SR&A Ltd, Empress Buildings, 380 Chester Road, Manchester M16 9EA. Email: stuart@sr-associates.com. Web: www.sr-associates.com. We would like to hear from you before the end of October.
